I have been in many honor choirs and master classes around the US, and the Summer Music Academy has been the best I've ever attended. - Nick, Cooper City, FL

PERFORMING ENSEMBLES

Choir: All singers will take part in learning and performing exciting choral repertoire under the leadership of Bach Festival's own Dr. John V. Sinclair.

Opera: Have you ever wondered what it would be like to become an opera singer? This selection gives you the chance to take center stage with operatic scenes.

Musical Theater: Make a splash singing and dancing your way through Broadway selections.

CLASSES

Conducting: Learn the art of directing an ensemble with basic conducting technique and score-study.

Sight-Singing & Theory Basics: Make singing more fun by learning strategies for sight-singing choral and solo vocal music.

Poetry and Music: Analyze Art Song texts and music to understand how they fit together, and what makes a song interesting to hear.

History of Rock & Roll: Take a ride through time to see how Rock & Roll took the world by storm and influenced pop music of today.

Language Diction: Learn how the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) can make foreign language pronunciation in your songs easier.

Acting for Singers: Explore hands-on exercises that will enhance your ability to communicate on stage.

The Summer Music Academy was absolutely amazing! I loved the teachers and I made so many good friends.
- Stefanie, Longwood, FL

Students completing grades 8-12 in Spring of '12 are invited to explore their voices as they perform choral, operatic, and musical theater repertoire, participate in music classes that peak their interest, and hear exciting professional musicians perform live in concert!

INSTRUCTORS:

Conductors and teachers have been selected from around the country for their musical expertise and proven ability to inspire young musicians. Past instructors have included Bach Festival artistic director and conductor, Dr. John V. Sinclair, Rollins' professor of voice and opera, Dr. Julia Foster, and Broadway star, Kevin Gray.

HOW TO APPLY:

Simply complete both sides of the Application Form, then mail with payment to the address indicated on the Application form by May 7. You are encouraged to complete and mail the form early because classes will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis.
